Thank You for a Wonderful 40 Years!

This has been an absolutely phenomenal year for JARC! During our yearlong 40th anniversary celebration, we:

- had a record-breaking turnout at SpringElation Safari at the Detroit Zoo
- enjoyed a rousing JARC presence at Arts, Beats & Eats
- shared a congratulatory celebration with our "birthday buddy", the Somerset South Collection, at a wild and crazy Party Like It's 1969
- opened the nation's first barrier-free environmentally "green" Nusbaum Family Home
- partnered with JCC, JVS and the Friendship Circle for an amazing SuperRaffle
- hosted world-famous Dr. John McGee, founder of the Gentle Teaching approach to caregiving, at a day-long conference for JARC and other sister agencies
- were featured in a cover article in the Detroit Jewish News
- wowed an enthusiastic crowd of 2200 supporters at the Fisher Theatre with a moving JARC video and LEGALLY BLONDE The Musical
- accepted the prestigious Robert Sosnick Award bestowed by the Jewish Fund for program excellence and community collaboration

Accepting the Robert Sosnick Award from Jewish Fund (L to R) Rick Loewenstein, Karen Sosnick Schonberg with Michael Maddin

Thank you all for being part of our remarkable past. Thank you to the communities who have welcomed our homes. Thank you to the synagogues, temples and day schools who have embraced the people with disabilities we serve. Thank you to the dedicated board, staff, volunteers and youth groups. Thank you to our vendors and businesses who have enabled us to direct more of the agency's resources to fulfilling our mission. Thank you to a committed community for its kindness and generosity.

But the honest truth is...we cannot rest on our past accomplishments. As long as there is a baby born with any kind of a disability, or a young adult with autism who yearns to lead an independent life, or a senior citizen with a developmental disability needing a helping hand... JARC must be there.

As you consider your end-of-the-year charitable giving, we hope you will remember how far JARC has come in 40 years and how much more we have to do in the next 40 years. There are so many ways to give — with your time, your expertise, and of course, your financial contributions. Throughout this edition, you will find countless opportunities to become more involved with JARC. We hope you will share the journey ahead with us.

Letter from the CEO:

RICK LOEWENSTEIN

Dear Friends,

JARC's 40th year has been an exciting one filled with celebrations and festivities galore. We have partied, rock 'n rolled, and rejoiced in our MANY remarkable accomplishments. However, as we've toasted our milestone, we have also been confronted by the sobering reality of a faltering economy and the uncertainty of public funding.

Although this somber state of affairs did not "rain on our parade", like everyone faced with a budget crisis, we had to make some difficult decisions. We responded quickly by tightening our belts — freezing wages, reducing employee benefits and enacting other cost containment measures.

We zealously pursued grant money from philanthropic foundations, and stepped up our marketing efforts to bring JARC's mission and message to local and national attention. I am pleased to report that we attained a break-even performance and did not eliminate a job or program in the process.

In the midst of all this, and in true JARC fashion, when faced with a formidable challenge, many positive things emerged. First, at their own suggestion, JARC's incredible staff stepped up to the plate by instituting a totally voluntary employee challenge to raise funds to benefit the agency. Over the 40-day challenge period, contributions by 62% of JARC staff poured in, totaling over $6,000. On top of this, thanks to the generosity of a long-time supporter and Board member who matched the money raised on a 2-to-one basis, the total reached an astounding $18,000!

Not to be outdone, when the families of those JARC serves heard of this employee effort, they responded by issuing their own challenge. In a short period of time, they raised an additional $6,000 over and above their annual commitments.

What has really been the best part of JARC's 40th year is that so many wonderful people came to our yearlong party — our staff, our families, our Board, the people we serve and our loving and generous community. We are honored to have had you be a part of it all.

RICK LOEWENSTEIN, JARC Chief Executive Officer

Spotlight on Staff: Rena Friedberg

RENA FRIEDBERG

Rena Friedberg first learned about JARC in 1978 when she was a counselor at JVS in Detroit. Some of her clients were living in JARC's first home on Evergreen. "I remember helping an elderly father fill out the application for his 55-year old son to move into a JARC home," recalls Rena. "It's remarkable, but that son just celebrated his 85th birthday in his JARC home."

After her daughter was born in 1982, Rena wanted to return to work on a part-time basis. Fortunately, Gilda Jacobs was also looking for a part-time position. Rena reflects, "Joyce Keller knew us both — and she made the shiddach. Gilda and I job shared for 15 years."

For the last 12 years, Rena has overseen the amazing JARC development team — which now includes Judy Burnett, Carol Kaczander, Laura Ostreicher, Alissa Pianin and Sam Rosenstein.

According to Rena, her job as Chief Development Officer continually grows and changes as JARC looks for new and better ways to reach the community. Whether it's SpringElation, a new grant to write or learning about social media, her job is always new and exciting, with the biggest challenge being to raise funds that will enable the agency to continue meeting the needs of the people it serves.

As Rena sees it, "My role is to translate JARC's magnificence into words, messages and images so the community will understand the care and love and magic that goes on here every minute of every day. My job is a true labor of love, and I love the challenge!"

2009 ANNUAL FALL FUNDRAISER

We couldn't have

The verdict is in! Legally Blonde Is Legitimately Great!

More than 2,200 supporters attended JARC's fall fundraiser presenting LEGALLY BLONDE The Musical at the Fisher Theatre on October 27, 2009. This event represented the culmination of a year-long celebration of JARC's 40th anniversary and helped to raise much needed funds to continue providing the highest quality of care and services to people with disabilities.

Always a highlight of this annual event is the premiere of a video produced and donated by Fran Victor and Bill Harder of Evolution Media. This year's film, "Passages", follows the lives of two individuals who were featured in previous videos and relates how JARC has provided a continuum of services as they have aged.

Event chairpersons David Carroll, Jeffrey Eisenshtadt and Susie Pappas were thrilled with the packed theater and the heartfelt generosity of the community. "Look around you — there's barely an empty seat!", said Pappas as she addressed the crowd. "This is a testament that, even in this economy, we are all here in support of an unbelievable organization, and we thank you from the bottom of our JARC Hearts!"

The young adult gala, "The Alibi Lounge", also was a resounding success with over 200 people in attendance. This pre-show gathering, catered by Matt Prentice's Milk and Honey, was chaired by Lindsay and Ryan Dembs and AJ and Ben Falik. It was an opportunity for those 40-ish and under to become involved in JARC as they prepare to become the new leadership in the organization's next 40 years.

From the JARCives

As JARC celebrates its 40th anniversary, we look back...

JARC Continues as Innovator and Role Model

Over the years, JARC has spoken out passionately on issues that impact the lives of individuals with disabilities. Through its JARC Heart program, begun in the 1980s, JARC has trained its staff, board and volunteers to act in ways that enhance the dignity and worth of each person served.

Veronique Ndri and Danny Jonas

JARC Heart is the basic foundation upon which all other JARC services are built. It is a set of standards, values and attitudes that promises a quality of life anyone would want for themselves if they had a disability, and it has become the guiding principle that distinguishes JARC from other care providers.

The tenets of JARC Heart are:

- ❶ LOVING, GENTLE, THOROUGH PHYSICAL CARE — the way you would hope to be cared for if you were dependent on others for your care.
- ❷ A FOCUS ON THE INDIVIDUAL— a dedication to relating warmly to the people we serve as individuals whose opinions, interests and emotions are paramount and come before all else.

- ❸ A CLEAN, WARM, BEAUTIFUL JEWISH HOME — taking personal responsibility for all agency property, constantly watching for anything that may detract from its safety or appearance and correcting it immediately.

- ❹ BEING AN ASSET TO THE COMMUNITY — a constant awareness of our relationships with the community.
- ❺ RELENTLESS, CONSTANT, PASSIONATE ADVOCACY — believing so much in each person's right to be cared for in a warm, loving way and lead a meaningful, productive life that you advocate for even the tiniest change that will further that goal.
- ❻ MAKING COMMUNITY CONNECTIONS — the commitment to facilitating opportunities for social connections and friendships between the people we serve and those in their lives who do not have disabilities.

JARC Heart means working as a community — as a team — to provide the best, to create the best, to be the best. That is more than a job — it's our mission!

Spotlight on Volunteer: Barbara Louie

BARBARA LOUIE

Last January, only days after retiring from her job as an archivist with the Burton Historical Collection of the Detroit Public Library, Barbara Louie became a new JARC volunteer. With a Bachelors Degree in Journalism, a Masters Degree in Library Science and an Archival Certification from Wayne State University, Barbara is uniquely qualified to organize and archive materials documenting JARC's past 40 years. Along with fellow archive volunteers Ashley Oleshansky and Phyllis Hellman, Barbara has helped sort through years of collected photos, newsletters, fundraising materials and printed documents to create for JARC a lasting legacy of the agency's history.

"Working in the JARC Archives, I try to arrange old papers and photographs into a sense of order that will help others find and use them more easily," says Barbara. "It's a job I find particularly satisfying."

Outside of her weekly assignment at JARC, Barbara and her husband of 36 years, Ming, love to travel and have been to Italy, Japan, France, Iceland and Ireland, not to mention 48 of the 50 United States. They hope to settle in Hawaii in a few years.

Barbara and Ming love spending their free time entertaining local children as "Ming the Magnificent" and his able assistant. In addition, they belong to Clowns of America, International and enjoy marching in community parades.

Although "clowning around" may be her hobby, Barbara takes her responsibilities at JARC very seriously, and cataloging JARC's history has become a very important part of her life.

Gentle Teaching: Chesed v'Rachamim: Loving Kindness and Compassion

Dr. John McGee, founder of the Gentle Teaching approach to care giving, spent a day addressing JARC staff as well as staff from sister agencies. Nearly 200 people attended the conference which focused on helping those we serve feel safe and cared about so that they can in turn be caring and engaged.

The Environmentally "Green" Nusbaum Family Dedication

On October 20, JARC held the dedication of its newest home, the Nusbaum Family Home in Farmington Hills. Beaming with pride were the home's donors Barbara and Irving Nusbaum, their son Arthur and son and daughter-in-law Rob and Lori. Guests were impressed by the home's barrier-free layout and environmentally "green" features.

The feeling of 'home' begins with a house ...and the

New beginnings at the new Nusbaum Family Home...

While moving to a new home is very exciting, the moving process itself can be challenging. When the decision was made to move the six ladies from the Louis C. Blumberg Home to the new "green" Nusbaum Family Home, it set in motion a series of carefully calculated steps that helped to ease the transition and make JARC the envy of anyone planning a change of residence.

Weeks before the planned move, residents Denise, Julie, Margaret, Marleen, Shirley and Victoria, along with the Home Manager Shirlyn Davis and the home staff began sorting through rooms, closets and drawers to determine what would go, what would be donated and what would be discarded. Boxes were packed first with non-essential items, like seasonal clothing, and gradually everything was clearly labeled and ready to go on the moving truck.

On day one, ten hard-working volunteers, JARC Property Manger Mike Cottle, and members of the Maintenance Department, Aaron Dorn and Rich Pernazza, made three trips between houses moving TVs, kitchen supplies, small pieces caring, loving people who live there.

of furniture and the boxes. On day two, working from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., all the ladies' personal things plus dressers, beds, office supplies, kitchen items — including a large freezer and refrigerator in the basement — were moved into the Nusbaum Home.

"The advantage of moving into a newly-built home is that there was no painting to be done right before so that was a big time-saver," says Mike Cottle. "But we did have to be careful not to scratch the new floors or walls," he adds.

While it took a tremendous amount of pre-planning and hard physical labor, at the end of that second day, when the ladies came home from work, their eyes just lit up.

Even the volunteer movers noticed how happy everyone was as they were bestowed with hugs of appreciation. Nothing could have been more gratifying than to see the expressions on the ladies' faces as their new "house" was transformed into their new "home".

The Need is Urgent...

Make Your Year-End Giving More Meaningful...

THINK JARC!

Some examples of what JARC provides with contributions from individuals and businesses throughout our community include:

- Beautiful, well-maintained homes in safe neighborhoods.
- Participation in a wide variety of social, recreational and cultural programs.
- Extensive religious programs and opportunities for those who so choose.
- Compensation for direct service staff exceeding industry standards helps to attract and retain the best possible staff ensures that the people we serve will be treated with the utmost care and dignity.
- Intensive and wide-ranging training for all staff, including the renowned U of JARC program.
- JARC's Volunteer Program, including coordination of over 1400 volunteers who support JARC's homes, programs and administrative operations.

These services are just a few examples of how JARC is able to offer services above and beyond the industry norm — thanks to the generous support of the community.

As you consider your year-end charitable gifts, please remember how much your generous support enriches the lives of others. We make it easy for you to give in whatever way is most meaningful, convenient and comfortable for you.

■ Tributes, Memorials and Cash Gifts

JARC tributes and memorials are a wonderful and meaningful way to honor someone special.

All tribute and memorial contributions are acknowledged with a lovely certificate that will be mailed out within one business day. Generous gifts of cash are used where the need is most to enrich the lives of those JARC serves. To make a tribute or a cash gift by phone, please call JARC's Tribute Department at 248-538-6611, Monday to Friday, 9-5. To leave a message after-hours, please call 248-538-6610 x 422

■ Donate a Vehicle

JARC is one of the charitable organizations participating in the Charity Motors, Inc. Car Donation Program. When you donate a car you no longer want, you receive a tax deduction and can designate JARC to receive the proceeds from the sale of your vehicle. Charity Motors's trained staff handles everything and best of all, 70% of your car's selling price is donated to JARC. If you are interested in donating your car and benefitting JARC, please call Charity Motors at 313-933-4000 and designate JARC as your charity.

■ Donations of Appreciated Stocks & Other Securities

Donating appreciated stock and other securities benefits both you and JARC. You may deduct the full fair market value of the stock as a charitable contribution and can bypass all capital gains taxes (assuming you have owned the stock for more than one year). Donations of stock and other securities can be used to establish a fund at JARC. To initiate your transfer of stock or other securities, please contact Rena Friedberg, JARC's Chief Development Officer at 248-538-6610 x 314 or renafriedberg@jarc.org.

■ Establish A Fund

Establishing a named fund at JARC is a wonderful way to honor or memorialize a loved one. Your contribution will help to provide services to people with disabilities for years to come. Permanent endowment funds can be established for a minimum of $25,000 and named spendable funds are available for a minimum of $5,000. Both can be designated for a general or specific purpose. For information on Funds, contact Rena Friedberg, JARC's Chief Development Officer at 248-538-6610 x 314 or renafriedberg@jarc.org.

■ Planned Giving

By supporting JARC through one of our many Planned Giving opportunities, you will help ensure that JARC will always be here to provide that care to those we serve throughout their lives. Charitable bequests, life insurance, and charitable gift annuities are only a few of the ways that you can help sustain JARC in perpetuity. For information on Planned Giving at JARC, contact Rena Friedberg, JARC's Chief Development Officer at 248-538-6610 x 314 or renafriedberg@jarc.org.

■ Corporate Matching Gifts

Many corporations will match employees' gifts to non-profit organizations such as JARC. This is a fantastic way to double (or even triple!) your gift to JARC. Contact your company's Human Resources Department and ask for information about their matching gifts program.

■ Become a Business Buddy

Business Buddies who donate products and professional services allow more resources to go directly to those JARC serves. To become a Business Buddy, contact Rena Friedberg, JARC's Chief Development Officer at 248-538-6610 x 314 or renafriedberg@jarc.org.

Remembering... NOW AND ALWAYS

As we celebrate our milestone 40th anniversary, we lovingly remember those we have served whose lives we touched and who touched our hearts. Each of these people is remembered on a special Yartzheit display at JARC's Katzman Administration Building where a memorial light is lit on the anniversary of their passing.
